representation, not smaller and not by invitees. She thinks having an election, as done in Oakland, is a great idea. There are currently 80 expenditure lines in Section 3 of the LCAP, and a large percentage of those are salaries for administrative people. If these are the people doing the inviting,

Success. Member Cuneo said a great portion, 85 percent, of our monies goes for salaries and benefits. If we don't give our community an ability to talk about funding in a constructive way, then we miss an opportunity, specifically about our unfunded health care liability and the level and pay and benefits we give our members. He said the LCAP provides a good mechanism for parents and opportunity, and he would like more feedback from community members about how they feel about our unfunded liabilities, do we have enough qualified teachers, and are we meeting data point benchmarks, for example. Maybe some of the reason why we don't see robust success in our District

12.2 AB 1200 Disclosure of Costs of the Tentative Agreements and Ratification of the Tentative Agreements with Bargaining Units – CSA, SEIU, and Teamsters (Cancy McArn)

Action

Cancy McArn, Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources, shared and brought for Board approval the tentative agreements with CSA, SEIU, and Teamsters, all of which
