Board Comments:

Member Jeane asked the student what type of activities take being brought forth, because participation as lacked in years past, but hoping that this resolution will change that, so there is more awareness of these weeks.

Member Phillips shared that everyone should be voting and wanted to make a note that President Rhodes' name is missing an "S" on the resolution, so she wanted to make sure it is revised.

Member Kavatta shared that for staff this should be more the Board, and wants to ensure that this is a Board-led effort where they can work on it together.

Member Singh shared that if we are writing that there are no financial considerations, should we remove what the District will do since it will cost money?

Member Rhodes responded to Member Singh and shared that this is just in support of and stating that we are heading in that direction.

The Superintendent asked for Rose Ramos to comment on J financial considerations and what it entails.

Rose Ramos stated that President Rhodes is correct. Staff is simply asking for support of the resolution. In this particular item being brought to the Board, we are not asking to approve any kind of funding for any of the projects at this point. That

Member Pritchett shared that we get consumed with our daily lives and forget to take time to reflect on our lives.

Member Villa was thinking the same thing as Member Pritchett Member Villa would like to see the impact on cost are we going to have staff come in for these events, do we have to vote as a Board as what we deem appropriate? Member Villa would just like more insight or the impact of this.

would have a certain amount of hours or time and funds that

Board should not ask for extra money on this. because the Board has discretionary funds.

Member Villa asked that when this gets brought back, can there be guardrails that states what is appropriate vs. what is not, sharing the procedures that will be in place, alerting the full Board of what the intention for specific events, so everyone is on the same page. Member Villa said that it is a great opportunity to share the work that everyone is doing in their areas.

Member Pritchett loves this idea, but wants to look at what is currently hindering us from doing this now.

Member Singh is looking for the Board to be added into one of
